

Florida Scenic Highway Workshop
Monday, July 18, 2005 – 6:00 p.m.
Riverbridge Garden Building

Attendees: Joe Jaynes, Suzanne Steiner, Elaine Laycock, Jane Culpepper, Sharon Rich, Debby Geyer, Pam Ferguson, Linda Kalaydjian, Tom Walther, Michell Gallagher, Rick Smith, Garry Balogh, Lynn Smith, Paula Wehr, Buck Harbuck, Laureen Kornel, Kathleen Pruett, Alice Jaeger, Benny Woodham, Martin Press, Rita Press, Sue Parkerson, Marsha Chance, Mike DelNinno

Barry Balogh, FDOT, opened the program, explained that we will learn about the requirements necessary to complete the eligibility phase of scenic highway designation and introduced the presenters. Lynn Marie Whately is Senior Project Manager and Andrew Nicol is Senior Planner. Both work for Carter-Burgess Engineering, Architecture and Related Services which provide assistance to CAGs in preparing the required documentation for submission to the Scenic Highways Advisory Committee (SHAC.) Lynne and Andy provided copies of Chapter 2 of the Florida Scenic Highways Program manual for all participants and spoke about the requirements of each section of the documentation. They also provided sample forms and answered questions about the differences between one section of the documentation vs. another.

Attendees at the workshop included representation from the Ormond Beach Scenic Loop CAG, the Bunnell Scenic Highway CAG, A1A Pride CAG and Ormond-By-The-Sea CAG.

Joe Jaynes suggested that the Ormond Beach Scenic Loop CAG and the Bunnell Scenic Highway CAG combine meetings in September.
